- 1 With black frosting (with a small frosting top) or with an edible marker, write RIP on each of the Milano cookies creating a tombstone. Set aside.
- 2 In a stand mixer, or hand mixer whisk together pudding mix and milk together on medium speed for 2 minutes.
- 3 Fold in cool whip until well blended.
- 4 Crush Oreos until they are fine crumbs using a food processor or using a zip lock bag and a rolling pin.
- 5 Sprinkle 3-4 TBSP of crumbs into the bottom of 6 clear 9 oz. clear plastic cups.
- 6 Press a few candy eyes around the edges between the crumbs and the cup so it looks like they are peaking out.
- 7 Spoon in a layer of pudding on evenly on top.
- 8 Repeat the last three step one more time.
- 9 End the layers by sprinkling more crumbs on top until they almost reach the lip of the cup.
- 10 Firmly insert one cookie tombstone into the center of each pudding cup.
- 11 Gently press in a candy pumpkin beside each tombstone.
- 12 Embellish with gummy worms if desired.
- 13 Refrigerate and enjoy!
